

BLESSING ON SCHOOL YEAR

I release God's angels to go before you, to prepare the way for you, to prosper you, and to give you the advantage in difficult situations.

I speak that they clear the way and eliminate threats that would come against you as well as threatening situations, traps, deceit, and unfavorable circumstances.

I declare that God's angels will go with you, keep you, and protect you.

I bless your minds to expand and that you will enlarge your deposit of knowledge.

I bless you for information, facts, and knowledge to cling to the soil of your minds.

I bless you to have the ability to recall that information so that you may excel in tests and grade scores.

I bless you for Holy Spirit to work in you and minister through you this year unlike other years.

I bless you to become an effective witness for Christ, that your prayers be effective, that your discernment be sharp, and that you receive unction to stand for your convictions and be an effective light to those around you.

I bless you to gain great experiences this school year that will shape your destiny.

Spoken by Pastor John A. Kilpatrick at Church of His Presence over the students and those who work in the school system on Sunday, August 9, 2009.
