

THE DECADE OF DECLARATIONS

Declarations to speak over your life in the Jewish Year 5780

Adapted from Jim Raley's sermon preached at Church of His Presence on September 29, 2019

I declare everything God has promised for my life this year will manifest. Even if I am at my end, God is just beginning.

I declare as I put God first, He will crown my life with blessings, breakthroughs, miracles, fruitfulness, and joy.

I declare by faith that this year will not be filled with drama and bitterness. This year will be filled and overflowing with the goodness of God and the sweetness of His peace-releasing presence.

I declare that I am a child of God, a joint heir with Jesus, who walks in obedience to His Word. This year, I will finish on the top and not the bottom!

I declare that God loves me, desires for me to be free, and releases freedom in my life. I release every offense, every sin, and every failure. I forgive myself, and I forgive others.

I declare this year, that as a child of a good God, I will do good deeds; and that as I honor God, He will release wealth, abundance, increase, and joy!

I declare that as I honor God this year, I will step into new seasons of new fruitfulness and be surprised by the goodness of my God.

I declare I will see the creative power of God manifest in my life—what I do not have and what I cannot create, my Creator God has, can, and is able to create.

I declare God remembers and visits me. I will supernaturally conceive and give birth to every miracle he has ordered for my life.

I declare that this year is my year of freedom! I will not be bound in my life, in my mind, or my destiny. This year, Jesus sets me free from all bondage.

I declare this year, the dove does not just hover, flutter, and brood over my life. This year, the dove lands on my life like never before!
